Individual Reports:

Frank - Toastmasters is having a speech contest next Thursday. KP Fire Dept. Levy passed which is good for staffing. Wondered where the local muralist is?

Ruth - All projects at the KP Sportsmen's Club are complete and the club supplied all the cakes auctioned off at the Hope Recovery fundraiser. The Bluegrass Festival fed over 350 guests.

Ed - Both engineering and vaulting business going well. Laurie is attending a vaulting annual meeting. KP Parks purchased 2 properties to the West & East of Gateway Park. Derek Young fought hard for KP Parks to acquire these pieces and now there can be more trails.

Todd - LPL Financial - Starts early in the day at Key Center office on Tuesdays and Fridays and will not be giving up this office space or leaving the Key Peninsula. Also developing office in Purdy location,.

Dick - The KP Veterans enjoyed participating in the 4th of July Social.

Gail - There is still art work on display( from the Art Walk) at the Blend and the Brones Room in the library.

Rosina - The annual report is available at the library. Starting vacation soon and will not be back until Sept. 1st.

Jud - Out of the seven organizations receiving grants from the Greater Gig Harbor Foundation, four were from the Key Peninsula. Food Backpacks 4 Kids continues with their food drive.

Danna - KP Community Council meeting on August 10th will feature Brian Stacy, Pierce County Engineer, discussing highway safety. A good variety of people attended and contributed thoughts and ideas at the KP Partnership Forum. The Farm Tour will have 10 locations to visit, with Gateway Park as the information center again. The KP News will provide the guide and map inside the Sept. issue.

Tracey - Serenity Salon still needs a stylist. A receptionist was hired. Effective Sept. 1, prices will be increasing. All the merchandise at the Indoor Garden Store has been rearranged , new prices (lower) and they do some on line sales. Grand opening sometime in September.

Respectfully submitted,
